

S.B.V.P. samaj

Sahakar Maharshi Bhausaheb Santuji Thorat Arts, Science & Commerce College, Sangamner

Department Of Hindi

To,

The Principal,

S.M.B.S.T. College Sangamner

Sub: Report of Activity – A Social Study of the Ballu Tribe

Occasion of - These occasions provide valuable insights into the Ballu tribe's social structure, culture, and traditions, enabling a comprehensive social study.

Date:- 31 / 08 /2024

Venue:- Ghulewadi

Time:- 9:40

Sr. No.	Event Activity Description	Description
1	Introduction	provide valuable insights into the Ballu tribe's social structure, culture, and traditions, enabling a comprehensive social study.
2	Aim and Objective	1. To understand their social structure: Study their family, kinship, and community dynamics. 2. To document their cultural practices: Record their customs, traditions, and beliefs. 3. To analyze their economic systems: Examine their livelihood strategies, agriculture, and trade practices. 4. To examine their political organization: Study their leadership, decision-making processes, and conflict resolution mechanisms. 5. To assess their educational and healthcare systems: Evaluate their access to education and healthcare facilities. 6. To identify their social issues and challenges: Determine their struggles, concerns, and aspirations.
3	Organizer	Department of Hindi
4	Beneficiary	Student	Other College/Member	Teacher / Staff	Stakeholder	Total
		10	22	03	--	35
5	Resource Persons	--
6	Topic Covered	A Social Study of the Ballu Tribe -- social structure, culture, traditions, economic systems.
7	Outcomes	1. Design of effective community programs addressing the tribe's specific needs and challenges. 2. Enhanced capacity of the Ballu tribe to manage their development and make informed decisions. 3. Efforts to preserve and promote the Ballu tribe's cultural heritage. 4. Better delivery of services like healthcare, education, and social welfare. 5. Empowerment of marginalized groups within the Ballu tribe, such as women and youth.

		6. Strong partnerships between researchers, policymakers, and the Ballu tribe.
8	Acknowledgment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Ballu Tribe Council for their guidance and approval - The local community leaders for their insights and facilitation
9	Short report of the activity – An interview of the Ballu tribe was conducted on Saturday 31/8/24 at Ghulewadi on the subject of the Social Study of the Ballu tribe organized by the Hindi department. On this occasion, everyone from the Ball community cooperated for the interview. On this occasion, the questions were answered and the problems and difficulties of this community were thoroughly understood. The students of S.Y.B.A. and T.Y.B.A. got this information through the questionnaire. Zilla Parishad member Sitaram Raut and Sarpanch were also present for this interview. Also, Hindi Department Chairman Prof. Satpute, Prof. Vaishali Shinde, Dr. Deepa Shri Gadakh, and students were present.

Mr. Minesh Satpute
Head of The Dept.

Dr. Laxman Ghaywat
Coordinator IQAC

Dr. Dinanath Patil
Principal

A Social Study of the Ballu Tribe Photos

Date :- 31 / 08 /2024

Kanjar tribe interviewing S. Y . B.A. And T. Y . B.A. student of